

To: New SPU Students
From: Mark Reid, Director of Safety and Security
Re: Online Training - Preventing Gender Based Violence at SPU

The Office of Safety and Security would like to encourage all new students to review an online presentation that addresses basic issues regarding gender based violence and related SPU policies. This online training discusses the following topics:

- Laws Related to Gender Based Violence
- Aspects of Healthy Relationships
- The Dynamics and Definitions of Sexual Assault, Stalking, Dating Violence, and Domestic Violence
- Risk Reduction Strategies and Bystander Intervention
- Procedures and Resources for Victims
- SPU Policies

This training is available to all students and employees through Canvas and can be accessed by copying and pasting the web address <https://canvas.spu.edu/enroll/FX3HKK> into your browser, and enrolling in the course. You may view the training at your own speed and may review the training as many times as you wish.

If you have any questions or feedback about this online presentation, please feel free to contact Cheryl Michaels, Associate Director of Safety and Security and Deputy Title IX Coordinator for Students, at michac@spu.edu.